

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=j24igzl-SNs> 1:10 à 5:10

"A brief BBC segment following the recent elections and what it could mean for Scotland's place in the United Kingdom."

Which of the following best describes the results of the election?

- The SNP now has a huge majority.
- The SNP is far from a majority.
- The SNP achieved a slight majority.
- The SNP narrowly missed out on a majority.

Nicola Sturgeon intends to:

- Push for a referendum as soon as possible.
- Deal with the pandemic, then work on a referendum.
- Ascertain the public support for a second referendum.
- Ask for Westminster's permission to hold a second referendum.

Why does Nicola Sturgeon use the term "sideshow"?

- To draw attention to how Scottish voters are seen as separate.
- She claims Scottish voters are being made fun of.
- She is referring to the Simpson's character Sideshow Bob.
- She wants equal voting right for Scotland.

What is the Tory stance on holding a second referendum?

- "We'll see"
- "If enough people want it"
- "The independence debate is behind us"
- "Right now, COVID is more important"

The Scottish Green Party is:

- Aligned with Nicola Sturgeon on a second referendum.
- Playing kingmaker with 8 seats.
- Aligned with the Conservative Party on a second referendum.
- Following Westminster on the issue of a second referendum.

The SNP

- Doesn't need Westminster's permission to hold a referendum but will ask for it anyway.
- Does need Westminster's permission to hold a referendum and will ask for it.

- Doesn't need Westminster's permission and will hold a referendum anyway.
- Does need Westminster's permission to hold a referendum but would hold it anyway.

Which of the following best describes the SNP's stance on a second referendum?

- A cornerstone
- A "nice-to-have".
- A shot-in-the-dark
- A hail Mary

Boris Johnson is planning:

- A Bilateral meeting with Nicola Sturgeon
- To meet Nicola Sturgeon as part of a meeting with UK leaders.
- To begin campaigning against Scottish independence.
- To stay out of the independence debate completely.

Which of the following was NOT used as Boris Johnson as a reason for Scotland not to leave?

- The pandemic recovery.
- The vaccination campaign.
- Brexit.
- Strength in unity.

What is Nicola Sturgeon's stated top priority at this time?

- COVID
- Forming a government
- The referendum
- Green energy