

FICHER AUDIO

1. In Inca society, what was unique about trial partnerships?
 - a. They were binding and nothing could break the agreement
 - b. The husband could choose to not go ahead with the marriage
 - c. They could be broken by either party
 - d. The man could tell his future wife to live in her own home
2. What was the stance on divorce among the Inuit peoples?
 - a. Divorce was strictly forbidden
 - b. Divorce was encouraged
 - c. Divorce was frowned upon but possible
 - d. Divorce was decided by religious authorities
3. What is implied by "Divorce is a battlefield"?
 - a. A literal location for conflict
 - b. It highlights major contentious issues
 - c. Divorce is always a source of conflict
 - d. It always involves at least two competing sides
4. Which country ushered in the first of the new divorce laws, allowing divorce on various grounds including mutual consent?
 - a. China
 - b. France
 - c. America
 - d. India
5. What was a common double standard regarding divorce laws in the 19th century?
 - a. Women could divorce for adultery alone
 - b. Women needed evidence of adultery plus an additional offense to divorce
 - c. Men could divorce without any grounds
 - d. Men could divorce if they suspected their wife had committed adultery
6. What principles informed divorce law right through to the 1950's?
 - a. Right and wrong
 - b. Good and evil
 - c. The superiority of man over woman
 - d. What goes around, comes around
7. What key characteristic of no-fault divorce laws is emphasized in the text?
 - a. Simplified legal procedures
 - b. Equitable division of assets
 - c. Either party can choose to divorce for any reason they wish
 - d. Requirement of mutual consent
8. Why factors hinder the transition from cultural and religious rules to state-sanctioned ones?
 - a. Economic stability
 - b. Legal conventions

c. Social and economic conditions

d. Governmental intervention

9. What best describes the idiom "sending two people their separate ways" in this context?

a. Physically separating two individuals

b. Facilitating divorce proceedings

c. Ending a marriage amicably

d. Resolving conflicts between partners

10. What key aspect of marriage and divorce is highlighted as being emotionally and philosophically complex in the text?

a. Legal formalities

b. Financial settlements

c. Shared responsibilities

d. Post-divorce relationships