

ÉPREUVES D'ADMISSIBILITE
EN INTERPRETATION DE CONFERENCE
Février 2015

English comprehension
video 1 – QCM

Video 1: Leonardo DiCaprio addressing the UN Climate Summit, September 23, 2014.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ka6_3TJcCkA

1. Leonardo DiCaprio is speaking on climate change because he is...
 - a. a distinguished guest.
 - b. not an expert on climate change.
 - c. an individual with a social conscience.
 - d. not interested in fictitious issues.

2. Leonardo DiCaprio...
 - a. pretends he doesn't need to make a living.
 - b. believes that climate change will stop if we pretend it will.
 - c. believes climate change will accelerate in the future.
 - d. sees new evidence of climate change every week.

3. He maintains that climate change is...
 - a. extremely likely to occur.
 - b. continuing in line with forecasts by scientists.
 - c. a rhetorical question.
 - d. not hysteria.

4. U.S. Admiral Locklear addresses climate change...
 - a. as a security issue.
 - b. via regular contact with both the scientific community and industry.
 - c. solely in the Pacific.
 - d. in the context of government responsibility.

5. According to Leonardo DiCaprio, who or what can make history?
 - a. his fellow demonstrators on the streets of New York.
 - b. the UN Climate Summit.
 - c. the scientific community.
 - d. mankind in general.

6. Leonardo DiCaprio believes that...
 - a. individuals must be told to make efforts (e.g. with light bulbs or cars).
 - b. the Summit must address all levels and scales, whether small or large.
 - c. tax dollars must not be used.
 - d. large-scale action must be taken by both government and industry.

7. He argues that...
 - a. charges should not apply to carbon emissions.
 - b. oil, coal and gas companies need government funding.
 - c. the free-market economy has made it easy for industry to pollute.
 - d. the economy and eco-systems are unrelated.

8. According to Leonardo DiCaprio,
 - a. accelerated climate change is a reality in the world today.
 - b. different political parties express radically different views in the climate change debate.
 - c. renewable energy poses a threat to economic stability.
 - d. melting ice-sheets will make the world's climate more liveable.

9. Leonardo DiCaprio says that leaders of the world...
 - a. do not pretend, but that he does.
 - b. voiced their opinions on the previous Sunday.
 - c. must turn back the momentum of the people's protest.
 - d. cannot wait till it is their turn to act.

10. "We beg of you to face it with courage." The pronoun "it" stands for
 - a. honesty.
 - b. humankind.
 - c. the challenge.
 - d. the world.