

ÉPREUVES D'ADMISSIBILITE
EN INTERPRETATION DE CONFERENCE
Janvier 2016

English comprehension
video 2 – QCM

Video 2: Indigenous Graduate, Wayne Blair

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zUkPw6Dkd3E>

- 1. When the young Wayne Blair first went to university,
 - a. he had already studied sport and business.
 - b. he enrolled in a drama course.
 - c. he was the same age as the other students.
 - d. he began his business studies.

- 2. When Wayne Blair was at university,
 - a. he did not work very hard.
 - b. he had a great time.
 - c. he had a spiritual experience.
 - d. he did not have any close friends

- 3. Wayne Blair is seen writing...
 - a. an imaginary letter to himself as a young man.
 - b. a letter to budding actors.
 - c. a hypothetical letter to his hypothetical son.
 - d. a letter encouraging young indigenous people to follow their instincts.

- 4. After studying drama at QUT, Wayne Blair's sole ambition was to...
 - a. study writing and film directing.
 - b. act on stage.
 - c. teach young people.
 - d. make a film.

- 5. Wayne Blair's talk is being given...
 - a. with the knowledge gained from his business experience.
 - b. on the basis of his forecasting skills.
 - c. with the benefit of hindsight.
 - d. in the context of his indigenous community.

- 6. When he says "You're going to....", he is referring to
 - a. what he has done.
 - b. what he might do next year.
 - c. what he would like his son to do.
 - d. what he dreamt about when he was young.

- 7. Speaking about information, he says that he would "take it on board." This means that he would:
 - a. use it when acting on stage.
 - b. consult the Board of Directors.
 - c. make use of it.
 - d. store it away for a rainy day.

8. Wayne Blair believes it is important to be proud...

- a. of being an actor.
- b. of having a university degree.
- c. as a sense of personal pride.
- d. because everybody is proud.

9. As an indigenous man,

- a. he is proud of being aboriginal.
- b. he is a representative of Rockhampton.
- c. he is a QUT graduate.
- d. he was invited to attend the Cannes Film Festival.

10. When Wayne Blair was young

- a. he decided that he would be an actor one day.
- b. his sole interest was sport.
- c. he had materialistic ambitions.
- d. he expected to study at university and have a career in business.